

We are an accredited "Star Export House" exporting papers and boards to countries in Africa, Middle East and Asia since 1991.

Mankind has always sought to evolve and improve ways of communicating and recording thoughts and events. In 1991, when the Indian economy was undergoing rapid liberalization and globalization, our enterprising founder Mr. Ashok Garg recognized the potential that Indian companies had for exporting papers and paperboards to the potentially importing countries in Africa, Middle East and Asia and thus founded Kumar Impex.

The targeted countries in these regions were at an active stage of development and industrialization at that time and consumption of papers and boards, as we all know is synonymous with the development of any country. The Europeans and South Eastern origin papers and boards were quite expensive, these regions could benefit immensely from less expensive and equally good quality alternatives from India and hence we started exporting a large variety of Indian papers and boards in several countries in these regions. Now after Many years of international trading experience we have positioned ourself as one of the large Paper Exporters from India.
